

Parashat Mishpatim In English

My name is: _____

Now that we have received (קיבלו) the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai and accepted the Torah, G-d teaches us the laws that are part of this Torah. In this parshah, we learn about 53 mitzvot (out of a total of 613) that G-d commands the Jews, so this parshah is basically a list of things you gotta do and can't do. Here some of them:

Servants (משרת/ עבד): The Torah gives very exact instructions (הוראות) about how one should treat (להתייחס) his servant.

Crimes Against Others (פשעים נגד אחרים): The punishment for murder, kidnapping, and hitting or cursing one's parents is the death penalty.

How to behave Animals (התנהגות כלפי בעלי חיים): What happens if somebody's ox (גרזן) kills an animal? — When do we must feed them? And more about how to treat them.

Taking Care of Someone Else's Stuff (לשמור על חפצים של מישהו אחר): If someone else's property (רכוש) is in our possession (בעלות שלנו), we have to do everything we can to take care of it, and if we are irresponsible (אחראי) לא and something happens to it, we must pay (לשלם) for it.

Different Ways We Must Be Nice (דרכים שונות בהם אנו צריכים להיות): The Torah demands (דורשת) (נחמדים) that we be extra nice to strangers (זרים), widows (אלמנות), and orphans (יתומים). These defenseless (חסר הגנה) people especially (במיוחד) deserve (ראויים) our kindness (נחמדות).

Laws for Courts and Judging: Never testify falsely against somebody, and don't accept (לא מקבל) a false (שגוי) testimony (עדות) from somebody else.

Holidays & Shmita: For six years we can work on the land—prepare (מכינים) the land, plant seeds (זורעים זרעים), take care of the plants, and harvest the fruits and vegetables
